Description

A handsome and substantial gentleman's wardrobe in the Gothic Revival manner, crafted in dark stained oak with beautifully carved vertical linenfold style panels and original decorative iron hinges and ring handle. The upper section features detailed carved ornamentation, while the lower doors are panelled in a bold vertical design, giving the piece strong architectural presence. Inside, the wardrobe offers hanging space with rail and upper shelf practical and generous proportions. A refined and masculine piece, ideal for a period bedroom, country house interior or character property. Very good antique condition. Structurally solid and stable. Original hardware present. Minor age related surface wear and small marks consistent with use. Interior clean and ready for use.

Internal Ref: B030
