Description

A fine antique quality French Louis XV style side cabinet beautifully crafted in kingwood and tulipwood veneers with exquisite floral marquetry and gilt-bronze (ormolu) mounts. The shaped top edged with a decorative brass gallery is crossbanded and inlaid with delicate geometric patterns that highlight the warm tones of the veneers. Beneath are a single drawer and a curved cupboard door enclosing a shelved interior, all adorned with intricate floral marquetry panels and ornate ormolu escutcheons. The cabinet stands gracefully on slender cabriole legs with gilt-bronze mounts and sabots typical of the fine craftsmanship of late 19th-century Parisian workshops. The hinged top lifts to reveal additional storage space, combining elegance with practicality. This is a high-quality and decorative antique side cabinet, ideal for use in a hallway, living room, or refined bedroom setting. Condition: Excellent antique condition with a rich, even patina and beautifully preserved veneers. Dimensions: Height: 86 cm (33.8 in) Width: 53.5 cm (21.1 in) Depth: 39 cm (15.3 in) Circa: 1900 Origin: France Material: Kingwood and Tulipwood with Ormolu Mounts
