Description

Hi I have for sale a French striking and repeating carriage with alarm function made in France around 1880; in rare case as it has the fretwork on the sides to match the dial and the side glass and it is simply stunning to look at, striking on a gong having been fully serviced. This is one small but heavy clock built to top spec and a must for the best of collections a very rare case not often seen for sale, with the solid handle also. The Case The case is in solid shiny gilt and stands 15cm high x 7.5cm wide with a depth of 7.5cm it is in perfect condition with mint thick 3mm bevelled sides/front/ and top viewing glass. The case is very shiny and hard to photograph they do not do the clock justice at all. The Dial The dial is in original condition with a silvered chapter ring, the dial is set in a stunning gilded fretwork mask which sets this clock apart from others, the clock has very fine original black spade hands, with the bold but fine Arabic numerals. The Movement The movement is an eight-day time and strike which strikes the hours via a small sweet gong to the rear and also has the repeater button on top to repeat the last hour strike, the movement has been se...
