Description

Queen Anne Style Walnut Writing Table Item Code S27-1116 A handsome Queen Anne style walnut writing table of elegant proportions, constructed in richly coloured walnut and displaying attractive grain throughout. The piece follows the classic form of early 18th century writing tables, combining practical storage with refined decorative detail. The table is arranged with a central frieze drawer flanked by two banks of drawers, providing useful storage while maintaining balanced proportions across the front. Above the writing surface sits a raised superstructure fitted with small drawers and open compartments, ideal for organising stationery and writing accessories. The shaped apron and elegant silhouette reflect traditional Queen Anne styling, while the table stands on turned legs united by an elaborate shaped stretcher with a central circular detail, giving the piece both visual interest and structural strength. A decorative and functional writing table, well suited for use as a desk in a study, office or living space, offering both character and practicality. Key Features • Queen Anne style walnut writing table • Central drawer with two banks of drawers to either side • R...
