Description

Antique 20th century Edwardian writing table in mahogany, a very well made and good-quality example of period furniture. The table features a raised gallery to the top, with a single door cupboard on either side and a large central drawer, all retaining their original brass handles and fittings. Stood on tapered legs with casters, the piece combines elegance with practicality, allowing easy mobility. The mahogany displays a gorgeous grain and warm colour throughout, enhanced by finely inlaid satinwood and ebony stringing on the drawer front and cupboard doors, adding subtle decorative detail. Presented in good condition, this is a very desirable and finely crafted writing table — functional, stylish, and a perfect addition to any home, offering both charm and practicality.
