Description

Antique 19th century finely carved Victorian display cabinet in oak, a very well made and fine quality example showcasing excellent craftsmanship and decorative detail. The cabinet features a glazed upper section with a single internal shelf, ideal for displaying treasured items while remaining well protected. Below, the blind door cupboard base also contains a singular shelf, providing practical enclosed storage. The lower cupboard doors are beautifully carved with highly detailed decoration, demonstrating the quality and character typical of Victorian furniture. The piece stands gracefully on cabriole legs with pad feet, further enhancing its elegant silhouette. Displaying a gorgeous oak grain and rich colour throughout, this cabinet is supplied with a key and is presented in good condition. A stunning and very desirable example, perfect as a decorative and functional addition to any home.
