Description

Antique 20th century bow front display cabinet in mahogany, a very well made and finest quality example combining elegance with practical display storage. The cabinet features a beautifully shaped bow front with a glazed door, opening to reveal two internal shelves and a clean white interior that enhances the presentation of displayed items. The piece retains its key and showcases a stunning mahogany grain and rich colour throughout, further complemented by a raised gallery to the top which adds decorative charm and presence. It stands gracefully on cabriole legs terminating in classic claw and ball feet, reinforcing its traditional styling and quality craftsmanship. A gorgeous and highly desirable example presented in good condition, offering both decorative appeal and functionality – a perfect addition to any home.
