Description

A Lovely Edwardian silver plated pierced biscuit barrel with a pierced gallery, hinged lid, and frosted glass liner. The central panel is pierced with the word 'Biscuits'. The hinged lid has a neat beaded rim and a crisp engraved border detail that adds refinement without feeling overly ornate. The finial is a small, classical-style knob. Inside sits a removable frosted glass liner, giving a practical, washable insert for biscuits, sweets, or pot-pourri – circa 1905. * A practical antique-style container that still suits modern living for biscuits, sweets, or scented botanicals. Measurements: Height: 6 1/2" (approx. 16.5cm) Width of base: 8" (approx. 20cm) Depth of base: 6 1/2" (approx. 16.5cm) Total weight: 1796g In good condition – The silver plate presents with a bright overall tone and gentle surface wear consistent with age and careful use. The hinge is fully functional, and the lid sits neatly when closed.
