Description

Antique 20th century Edwardian wardrobe in walnut, a very well made and good quality example of early 20th century craftsmanship. The wardrobe features a central bevel-edged mirrored door, opening to reveal a hanging rail for practical clothing storage. Below is a large drawer with its original brass handles, offering additional storage while maintaining the piece's original character. The wardrobe stands on sturdy bracket feet, providing a stable and elegant base. The walnut displays gorgeous grain and rich colour throughout, enhancing its visual appeal and highlighting the quality of the timber. A beautiful and very desirable example, presented in good condition. Perfect as a practical and stylish addition to any home.
