Description

A Very Good Quality 18th Century George III Period Mahogany Floorstanding Double Corner Cabinet, Or Corner Cupboard, Retaining Good Colour And Patina Throughout, Having Step Moulded Cornice To Top, Over Pair Of Thirteen Pane Astragal Glazed Doors, Enclosing Two Elegant Shaped Shelves To Top, And Well Figured Pair Of Cockbeaded Panelled Doors Below, Enclosing One Fixed Shelf, Raised On Original Plinth Base. Corner cupboards, or cabinets, dependent on whether their doors are glazed or not, are the perfect answer for those looking to add a different perspective to a room, or add practical storage to a room when they have no conventional space left to position furniture in. This corner cabinet was constructed towards the end of the 18th century using good quality and well figured mahogany, which has retained an attractive colour. It is also of double door design which gives it a little more presence and importance, as well as offering more versatility and practicality when taking objects in and out of it. It retains its original plinth and comes with fully functioning locks and key. The majority of the glazing appears to be original and the astragal decoration is very well...
