Description

Antique 19th century marble top washstand in mahogany, a very well made and good quality example of Victorian design. The piece features three drawers to the front, with the central drawer being a faux drawer, all retaining their original knob handles and adding to its authentic character. The washstand is raised on turned legs, providing a classic and elegant silhouette, while the mahogany displays gorgeous grain and rich colour throughout. The beautiful marble top is both practical and decorative, complemented by a stunning tiled back that enhances its period charm. Solidly constructed and presented in good condition, this is a very desirable example. A perfect addition to any home, combining decorative appeal with traditional functionality.
