Description

Antique 20th century Edwardian cupboard in mahogany, a very well made and finely crafted piece combining elegance with practicality. The upper section features four drawers, all retaining their original knob handles, offering useful storage while maintaining the cabinet's authentic Edwardian character. Below, the double door cupboard opens to reveal a single internal shelf, providing generous concealed storage suitable for a variety of household uses. The piece is raised on graceful cabriole legs, enhancing its refined proportions and decorative appeal. Constructed from quality mahogany, the cupboard showcases beautiful grain and figuring throughout, giving it a rich warmth and visual depth. Presented in good condition, this is a stunning and highly desirable example that would make a charming and functional addition to any home. A lovely, versatile piece of furniture with timeless appeal.
