Description

A stunning 19th century walnut wing armchair newly upholstered in 'Shantung Antique Gold' heavyweight upholstery fabric by P Kaufmann. The chair is sturdy and comfortable with wonderful long cabriole legs to front terminating in wide trifold feet with carved scrolls at the hips and well shaped spandrels. The chair is of a good height and the seat height is 20.75 inches. Very supportive, firmly padded with a squab cushion, this would be perfect for a fireside or desk chair. Rich warm colour to the walnut frame, a few minor dings and a spandrel has been refitted at some point – but is original - nothing substantive or noticeable and no worm. A very high quality and beautiful 19th century wingback chair. Dimensions are: Height from floor to seat is 18 inches, height from floor to top of seat pad is 20.75 inches, depth of seat is 15.75 inches. Overall height is 41 inches, depth is 27 inches and maximum width is 27 inches. For metric please multiply by 2.5
