Description

Antique 20th century large coffee table in cherry wood, a very well made and good quality piece with a strong and elegant presence. The table stands on turned legs with a useful lower shelf to the base, offering both stability and practical additional storage or display space. The cherry wood displays a rich, warm tone with gorgeous grain and colour throughout, highlighting the natural beauty of the timber. Its generous size makes it ideal as a central living room piece, while the classic design ensures it complements both traditional and contemporary interiors. A very desirable example, solidly constructed and presented in good condition. A perfect addition to any home, combining practicality with timeless style.
