Description

~~ Excellent condition throughout ~~ This is an exceptional example of a classic French mahogany bracket or mantel clock. The case is simply quite stunning, made of mahogany which has a wonderful colour but what is most striking is the quality of the inlay of brass, satinwood and mother of pearl surrounding the clock, this is complimented by the original polished brass bezel with the white dial. The only mark worth mentioning is a minute piece of chipped veneer to the left hand edge which can be seen in the photographs but this in no way detracts from the overall beauty of this clock. It has a solid brass pineapple finial and lion mask handles and stands on brass bracket feet. The quality and attention to detail is quite stunning. The clock strikes the hours and the half hours on a tuned gong which has the most beautiful mellow tone and resonates for a very long time. This movement is by the top French maker Achille Brocot and it is an outstanding piece of top quality engineering and is totally original and again is clearly marked. It also comes with a winding key, a fine adjustment key and pendulum. The movement has just undergone a full overhaul, clean and ser...
