Description

Antique 20th century Edwardian display cabinet in oak, a very well made and fine quality example of early 20th century craftsmanship. The cabinet features a beautifully glazed front opening to three adjustable shelves, perfect for displaying china, glassware, or collectibles. The upper section comes with a key for secure closure. Below is a drawer to the base, retaining its original metal handles, providing practical storage. The cabinet stands on elegant barley twist supports with a stretcher, adding both stability and decorative appeal, and is finished with a raised gallery to the top. The oak displays gorgeous grain and warm colour throughout, highlighting the quality of the timber. A very desirable example in a nice size, presented in good condition. Perfect as both a practical and decorative addition to any home.
