Description

A beautiful 19th century Victorian chaise longue with an elegant asymmetrical form and richly carved solid walnut frame. The chaise features a graceful scroll arm and a shaped back with hand-carved shell detailing, a classic Victorian motif that adds wonderful decorative character. The back and arm are deep button upholstered, creating a comfortable and inviting seat while highlighting the elegant silhouette. Raised on turned walnut legs with original porcelain castors, the piece retains lovely period details and proportions. The upholstery is in good condition and ready to use, making this a practical as well as decorative piece. Perfect for a bedroom, dressing room, hallway or sitting room, this chaise adds instant period charm and works beautifully in both traditional and eclectic interiors. Dimensions other Seat Height 36 cm Condition: Good antique condition with light signs of age consistent with use. Upholstery is clean and usable. Frame and carving are sound.
