Description

A Regency Worcester porcelain plate from the Flight, Barr & Barr partnership, circa 1820. The fluted and scalloped form reflects earlier Worcester models of the 1765–1775 period. Decorated in the enduring Dragon in Compartments pattern with dragon and kylin in alternating panels divided by oriental objects. The palette and structure reflect Worcester's long-standing interpretation of Kangxi famille verte prototypes. Retaining a Flight Collection label, linking the piece to the Worcester collection assembled by Howard Emerson Flight, Lord Flight. Dimensions: Diameter 21.7 cm; height 2.5 cm. Weight 323 g. Condition: Antique condition. No restorations. There are underglaze cracks visible on the underside; on close inspection, they extend into the porcelain body. There is surface wear to the enamels and gilding consistent with age and use. Please study the accompanying photographs carefully, as they form an integral part of this description. If you have any questions, we will be happy to answer them. The item will be shipped with full tracking and insurance. It is important to note that shipping costs include labour, packaging, and postage.
