Description

A large Georgian dresser base of an impressive scale and size, having a well-figured top above a central cupboard door with a small drawer above and three graduated drawers to each side. All drawers and the cupboard door are lip moulded and decorated with a walnut feather banding to the edge. This dresser is of excellent quality with oak lined drawers and having panelled ends and an oak panelled back.. This dresser is of a nice pale color and all the drawers run smoothly. The handles are replaced but of the correct style. Circa 1760.
