Description

Hi I have for sale a beautiful double fusee dial clock made in London by Thwaites & Reed I would date this clock to around 1880, with a mega rare 18-inch original dial in a solid mahogany wood case. This would have cost mega money in the day. This clock is in beautiful original condition with the sound frets at the sides a bottom opening door with the original key and matched three locks. The clock movement is simply stunning I have never seen such a well-built movement thick plates and a five-pillar movement. I have serviced the movement it is signed on the back by the retailer and on the front plate T&R 10091. The Case The case is in solid mahogany wood and stands 56cm High and x20cm in depth. It is in original condition well-waxed and loved over the years and presented to you in beautiful condition ready to hang and enjoy. The case is very old and has a few small age-related dings but you would have to look very close to see they looks great on the wall and so different. To the top of the clock is the steel hanging bracket. The Dial The dial is in original condition 45.5 cm or 18" inches in old money across painted white with Roman numerals and covered by glass in a m...
