Description

Impressionist Farming Cattle Watercolour Painting by Ernest Pile Bucknall RA (1861-1935) Brief Description: A superb all-original late 19th Century Impressionist Farming Cattle Watercolour Painting titled: "The Farm Lane". Painted by British Royal Academy Listed Artist Ernest Pile Bucknall RA (1861-1935) Biography: Born in 1861 in Liverpool, Ernest Bucknall was educated at Dulwich College. He studied art at Lambeth and at South Kensington Academies, where in 1876, he won the Queen's Prize for Perspective. He specialised in landscape painting in watercolour and exhibited at the Royal Academy of London*, the Royal Society of British Artists* and the Royal Institute of Painters in Watercolours. In 1919, he came to live in Gloucester Road, Bristol and was elected an Artist Member of the Savages at the age of 58. In 1924, he contributed to "Grouse" an article on the charms of English rural architecture. He died in June 1935. The fabulous image portrays a small rural countryside farm lane with a herd of cattle slowly making their way to an adjoining field. Bucknall portrayed the scene and captured the impressionistic mood with magnificent attention to det...
