Description

Lake Garda Italian Landscape Watercolour Painting 19th-Century Exceptional Frame Brief Description: This is a fabulous quality, large original 19th-century Italian Landscape Watercolour Painting depicting an expansive view of Lake Garda, in Northern Italy. The magnificent piece is mounted within the original and exceptional quality heavy gilt-scrrolled and glazed gesso frame, whilst retaining the original 19th-century glass protective panel, and the original gilt wooden presentation plaque that reads in Italian: "Lago Di Garda". The plaque also contains the artist's initials of "M.L". It is a truly wonderfully detailed image, with a huge expansive mountain range, historical buildings, and some native Italians who are seemingly going about their daily chores whilst enjoying the marvellous view before them. Attributes: Watercolour Painting Initialed within the presentation plaque "M.L" Circa: 1870s Condition: Offered in an overall excellent original condition commensurate with age, with merely just a few tiny areas of gesso mouldings missing from the leading edges of the original frame that can be seen upon close inspection Framed Measurements:...
