Description

A full-length shop mirror, retaining its original solid mahogany frame, finished in a deep ebonised surface that allows the grain to subtly show through. The frame features clean rounded edges and neatly mitred corners, giving the mirror a crisp look. Originally designed for use in a retail or tailoring environment, the generous proportions allow for a full head-to-toe view, making it as practical today as it was when first made. The mahogany has developed a rich surface patina with light wear and soft knocks consistent with age and use, adding character without detracting from its refined appearance. Equally well suited to a boutique interior, fitting room, studio. This mirror would work beautifully leaned or wall-mounted. A timeless and highly usable piece of original shop furniture with a strong decorative presence. H: 211 W: 60 D: 4 cm
