Description

This is a fine pair of antique English William IV tent waterfall crystal chandeliers each with twelve lights arranged over two tiers, and circa 1830 in date. The oak leaf gilt chandeliers feature drop hung corona supporting cascading chains of rule drop tents to the main ring issuing two tiers of lights, one of eight and one of four, all with ornate scroll arms supporting radial cut drip pans and candle nozzles to. The luxurious waterfall design features hundreds of hand-knotted icicle-cut crystal pendants that create a dazzling waterfall effect, further enhanced by octagonal crystal button chains draped from top to bottom. The chandeliers have been later wired for electricity. Whether they are placed in a hallway, foyer, or reception room this magnificent pair of chandeliers make the ultimate statement.
