An exceptional piece of furniture by James Shoolbred & Co who were established in the 1820's as a draper's shop, at Tottenham Court Road, London. The company first began supplying textiles to the furniture trade. By the 1860's, the company began designing, manufacturing and selling its own high quality antique furniture in their thriving and fashionable furniture shop. By the 1880's they had expanded to such an extent that the business had to move to larger premises and became one of the first large department stores in London, who would supply quality antique furniture and accessories for the Victorian home.
