Description

A very attractive, quality antique Victorian armchair with a beautifully shaped button-back and deep seat, offering both comfort and elegance. The chair features classic deep button upholstery to the back with gently scrolled arms and a generous serpentine front seat. It stands on elegant turned front legs with original brass and ceramic castors and rear splayed legs, all in solid wood. The upholstery is a traditional woven fabric with a subtle repeating motif in soft neutral tones, which suits both traditional and contemporary interiors. The chair is well sprung and very comfortable, making it ideal as an occasional chair, bedroom chair, or statement piece for a sitting room. A charming and decorative piece with lovely proportions. Perfect for a country house, cottage or traditional interior. Condition: Good antique condition with only light wear to the upholstery; the frame is solid and sturdy. Approximate Dimensions: Height: 83 cm Width: 67 cm Depth: 84 cm Seat Height: 37 cm A lovely characterful Victorian chair ready for use.
