Description

A very rare item of antique silver flatware, that appears to have been primarily made and Assayed in Ireland. This charming piece is an oyster fork. Often mistaken for a child's piece due to it's smaller proportions, this lovely example is in fiddle pattern and has a fine crest engraved to the top reverse of the shank. Marked only 'Sterling' this indicates origins in Cork or Limerick. A wonderful collector's piece with a practical use. Dimensions below. Postage and packing £10.00 UK £18.00 Europe £45.00 (including 10% tariff) £26.00 Outside Europe Hallmarks :- Marked Sterling Condition :- Excellent, with no dents or splits. Date :- Cork c 1820.
