Description

An excellent Edwardian period tall inlaid mahogany pillar chest by Maple and Co of London. With a series of 7 graduated drawers all fitted with their original solid brass handles. Decorated with inlaid stringing and banding throughout. Sympathetically repolished in our workshops and now offered for sale in excellent condition, ready to go straight into the home or office. Dimensions: Width 68cms Depth 48cms Height 123cms Maple & Co was established by John Maple, a shopkeeper from Horley, Surrey, who later opened a furniture shop in Tottenham Court Road. However it was his son, John Blundell Maple, who made Maples & Co a success. With exceptional business skills, John B. Maple took over the company while still a young man. By the 1880s they were the largest furniture store in the world, exported their fine furniture to every continent. Maples manufactured their luxury furniture entirely in-house, at a huge modern complex. A timber importer and furniture exporter, they landed prestigious contracts furnishing fine houses, hotels, embassies and palaces in Europe; among them Tsar Nicholas's Winter Palace and the Hofburg Imperial Palace in Vienna. With his own empire estab...
