Description

Outstanding Victorian Walnut Dickens Desk. An incredibly rare and wonderfully ornate piece. We are delighted to bring to you this truly fantastic and very rare English Victorian Dickens desk made from solid Walnut by the prestigious Maple & Co. of London. Dating to circa 1890, as we are restorers, this piece has undergone a sympathetic and full professional restoration in our workshop, including a meticulous re-polishing that showcases the deep, figured grain and honeyed tones of the Walnut. The desk follows the iconic twin-pedestal silhouette, crowned by a tiered superstructure featuring two banks of three small drawers flanking a central, balustraded spindle gallery. The focal point is the hinged writing well, which opens smoothly on a brass stay to reveal a spacious storage interior lined in a vibrant green baize - perfect for stationery or a laptop. The craftsmanship is exemplary of the Maple & Co reputation for innovation; the drawers feature machine-cut dovetails to the base drawers, a technique they pioneered to ensure lifelong structural integrity, and are constructed with solid gum tree backings. Every drawer has been thoroughly checked over and serviced in ...
