Description

Antique Georgian Mahogany Chest of 5 Drawers on bracket feet. An exceptional condition original Georgian chest of drawers. This particularly handsome English Georgian Mahogany chest of drawers, dating to circa 1820. The chest boasts an idyllic, lightly faded honey mahogany colour complete with its original french polished finish with lots character and charm. The quality and condition of this piece are truly exceptional, offering that sought-after mellow glow that only comes from two centuries of careful use. Unusually this chest retains its original Georgian working warded locks, complete with original key. Furthermore, the interiors of the drawers are remarkably clean and entirely free from staining, a condition which is very uncommon for a piece of this age and truly underscores how well it has been cared for throughout its history. The top is finished with a crisp cross-banded edge and an Ebony border inlay. The chest has a great stance, sitting on a reeded base supported by its original solid bracket feet. The internal quality is exactly what a collector looks for, featuring Oak sidings and clean, finely hand-cut dovetails, with all cockbeading present and correct. ...
