Description

Rare 1930's Bespoke Adzed Mouseman Oak Table A rare bespoke model of a 1930's beautiful oak side table or desk by Mouseman. A much chunkier, oversized example over usual proportions, this is a superb piece of early Mouseman furniture, made in solid oak with a thick adzed oak table top on four strong legs with a central connecting stretcher. To one leg is a very large and plump carved signature mouse. A useful piece that would work well as a Mosueman desk as it has two drawers to the front, both are clean, run smoothly and they each have the original turned oak handle. Every surface is adzed. Equally would work well as a Mousmean side table. All a fantastic original rich colour and in superb condition. Dates to the thirties. Dimensions Height: 79cm (31.35") Width: 122cm (48.41") Depth: 61cm (24.21")
