Description

A 19th century gold pendant with a large faux pearl and lovely Etruscan Revival detail to the front, and a glassed locket panel at the back. The glass back, which likely originally held a lock of hair, is easily prised out with a fingernail for you to insert your own picture or keepsake behind the glass should you wish. SIZE: The locket is 2cm diameter, the pearl is 1cm across. WEIGHT: 3.1g. MATERIALS: 15-carat gold, simulated pearl, glass. HALLMARKS/STAMPS: None. The metal tests as 15-carat gold. CONDITION: Very good antique condition; the faux pearl may be a later replacement. Under magnification there are a few scratches at the side of the pearl. ERA: Victorian (c.1837-1901).
