Description

An elegant and rare kingwood veneered George III antique bracket or table clock, with ebonised moulding to the plinth, and ebonised cylindrical shaped moulds finished with a pagoda shaped top. The case has a decoratively engraved brass bezel with inset panel and brass border, and stands on brass ball feet. The 6 inch painted dish dial has Roman numerals and strike silent feature with the makers name - Turner Fenchurch Street London. The movement is an eight day duration, five pillar, twin fusee with pull repeat action, and strikes the hours on a bell. The back plate and pendulum are nicely engraved and also have the makers name. The movement has been cleaned and serviced and comes with a 12 month guarantee.
