Description

OIL ON CANVAS PORTRAIT OF A GENTLEMAN BY LANCE CALKIN SIGNED AND DATED LANCE CALKIN (BRITISH, 1859-1936) – PORTRAIT OF AN ELDERLY GENTLEMAN – OIL ON CANVAS – 62.5 X 54 Signed lower right and dated 1914. Lance Calkin (1859–1936) Lance Calkin, born George Lance Calkin on 22 June 1859 in London, was a British portrait painter active during the late Victorian and Edwardian periods. He was particularly known for his accomplished oil portraits of royalty, politicians, and prominent professional figures, and he held an established position within the artistic institutions of his time. Calkin came from a culturally accomplished family; his father, George Calkin, was a noted musician and composer. This artistic environment contributed to Calkin's early development and led him to pursue formal artistic training. He was privately educated before studying at the Slade School of Fine Art and the Royal Academy. These institutions placed him firmly within the academic tradition of British painting and shaped his disciplined approach to portraiture. By the 1890s, Calkin had established himself professionally, and in 1895 he was elected a member of the Royal Institute of Oil Painters...
