Description

This is an antique conservatory table. An English, Alabaster marble and cast iron portico or veranda tea table, dating to the Regency period, circa 1820. Pleasingly weathered, with appeal throughout the house or outdoors. Displaying a desirably aged, time-worn patina from decades of use. Naturally patinated alabaster marble top, with remnants of aged moss. Hand-painted stand in a striking blue hue, gently aged in appearance. Fluted support column uniting the plinth top with the tripod base. Trio of squat legs with rolled toes and scrolled cast motif. This is a wonderfully patinated antique conservatory table, presenting natural age and charm in abundance. Solid joints and construction, delivered ready for the home or garden. Dimensions: Max Width: 50cm (19.75") Max Depth: 50cm (19.75") Max Height: 70.5cm (27.75")
