Description

Here is a brass mirror dating from the early first half of the 20th century, that blends Neoclassical style with Hollywood Regency, using rams heads and acanthus leaves to create a real statement piece. Measuring 72cm by 41cm (52cm to the top of the chain) , the mirror hangs with it's central chain visible, and creates a very handsome impression. The brass frame displays the surface wear to be expected of a piece of this age, and there is some rubbing to the top of the frame, so please check the photos, to see if this is for you. I offer free shipping to mainland UK, and am very happy to help with quotes for shipping abroad. Please don't hesitate to get in touch if I can offer any further information or photographs.
