Description

This superb GEORGE VI SILVER TOAST RACK has four compartments divided by arched supports on an oval frame. The Silver Toast Rack, made by the well-known silversmiths of Thomas Bradbury & Sons Ltd and assayed in Sheffield in 1939, has elegantly shaped handles at both ends and is supported on four ball feet. This lovely Silver Toast Rack has not been engraved with any family crests or initials and one end has a full set of clearly defined hallmarks. This is made from good heavy gauge silver, is of fine quality and is in exceptional condition and could be used as intended as a toast rack or as a superb desk top letter rack or would make a wonderful addition to any collection and would enhance any table setting.
