Description

Hutton-Clarke Antiques are pleased to offer this attractive low walnut side table, a good quality copy in the Queen Anne style, dating to circa 1900. The rectangular top is finished with a decorative faux marble surface, giving the appearance of stone while providing a practical and durable finish. The table features three drawers to the front, fitted with decorative brass handles and escutcheon, offering useful storage while maintaining pleasing proportions. The walnut veneers display a warm tone and attractive figuring with a good mellow patina. Raised on elegant turned legs united by a shaped cross stretcher, the table has a refined and balanced form inspired by early 18th century Queen Anne furniture. Pieces of this type were produced around the turn of the 20th century as high-quality revival examples of earlier English designs. A charming and practical antique occasional or lamp table, combining useful storage with classic English styling. Height 65cm , width 60 cm, depth 43 cm
