Description

Antique Victorian Carved Mahogany Duchess Dressing Table. A beautiful condition Victorian Duchess dressing table. This magnificent Victorian Mahogany Duchess dressing table, circa 1870, features a stunning original bevelled glass mirror with a firm, adjustable tilt mechanism. For its age, the silvering of the glass remains in remarkable condition, showing only the most minimal foxing—just enough to give that desirable antique shimmer without compromising its clarity. The mirror is framed by two exquisitely hand-carved foliate supports that sit atop twin banks of jewellery drawers, which are elegantly joined by a delicate spindled gallery rail. A standout feature of this particular piece is the suite of original brass dropper handles, boasting a highly unusual and rare honeycomb shape that adds a distinct touch of geometric sophistication to the design. The construction is of the highest quality throughout, housing eight drawers in total, all of which feature finely hand-cut dovetails and solid mahogany sides. Notably, the tops are all crafted from solid mahogany without any joins, an unusual and impressive detail that showcases the quality of the timber used. The draw...
