Description

An Elegant Pair of Antique Edwardian tall brass candlesticks with integrated drip pans and broad, stepped circular bases. Each stick has a clean, turned column with subtle baluster detailing, giving a restrained traditional silhouette. The shaping suggests a classic English taste, likely made in the early 20th century in a revival of earlier Georgian forms – circa 1905. * Their tall proportions make them ideal for framing a mantel clock, mirror, or seasonal display. Measurements: Height: 17" (approx. 43cm) Diameter of base: 5 1/4" (approx. 13cm) Total weight: 1720g In good condition – Both candlesticks show general surface wear and light marks consistent with age and handling.
