Description

A Lovely Antique Victorian silver plate and cut glass Butter Dish presented with decorative stand. The cut glass dish is in the style of a banded barrel. The lid is finished with a pinecone-style finial and a geometric stepped dome that sits neatly within the rim – circa 1880. * The leaf-edged stand gives the bowl a formal, centrepiece presence without taking up much space. Measurements: Height: 4 1/2" (approx. 11.5cm) Diameter of base: 7 1/4" (approx. 18.5cm) Total weight: 1096g In good condition – The silver plate shows light surface wear and fine marks consistent with normal handling and age. There are no chips or cracks to the glass.
