Description

A very fine 19th Century well patinated burr walnut inlaid library or centre table of exceptional quality, beautifully hand carved with rich patination, fabulous grain and in fantastic condition. The well figured and moulded top of rectangular form with curved corners features delicate line inlay and exquisite marquetry inlaid arrangements of flowers and richly scrolling foliate motifs throughout. Raised over a simple frieze above a pair of stunning ring turned side supports with sphere and foliate motifs, united with a finely hand carved, ring turned stretcher featuring gorgeous pairs of urns with sphere and panel detailing above elegantly out-splaying panelled legs, terminating on well cast brass and ceramic casters.
