

SA1201893

Antique oil painting by Philipp Ferdinand de Hamilton of wildlife and ducks including ducklings, a mother duck, a bird, birds and frogs or toads 18th century and being a large antique oil painting of bird and birds. Impressive proportions

Price

GBP 12,950

| USD $17,534 | EUR 15,153

Item Reference: SA1201893Date of manufacture: 18th Century

Description

An extremely large and impressive antique oil painting of wild ducks including a mother duck and her ducklings in a rural landscape on a waters edge and also with frogs or toads on the bank by PHILIPP FERDINAND DE HAMILTON 1664 -1750. He was a famous 18th century artist from the Southern Netherlands active in Austria. Philipp Ferdinand de Hamilton from 1705 to 1750 was employed as a respected royal court painter in Vienna. He is known for incredibly detailed and realistic hunting and wildlife scenes. This antique oil painting attributed to Philipp Ferdinand de Hamilton has been professionally relined and is a very large and impressive antique oil painting that is captivatingly beautiful to attract one's gaze so much, the you are enticed to stand and admire its natural appearance and delicate moment of innocent young wild animals being cared for by their loving mother. MEASUREMENTS OF CANVAS ONLY: Width: 123cm Height: 85.5cm MEASUREMENTS INCLUDING THE FRAME: Width: 143.5cm Height: 106cm

Internal Ref: Philipp ducks

Seller Details

Gerald Neville Antiques

East Sussex United Kingdom

Tel: 07597 391543

International Tel: +44 7597 391543