Description

This Georgian tipstaff which is made of brass and wood dates from the early 19th century. This antique tipstaff has a wooden handle with a brass body which is topped with an open brass crown finial. This signifies the Crown Court authority and would have been used to serve a warrant by a court officer, bailiff or police constable. Once the official had touched the person with the tipstaff the warrant would be deemed as served. A wonderful tactile item that is an interesting talking piece. Material: Brass. Wood. Date: Georgian. Dimensions: Length: 16 cm (6 1/4"). Width: 2.5 cm (1"). Height: 2.5 cm (1"). Weight: 58 g. Condition: Very good original antique condition with signs of use in keeping with age. Some light bruises, knocks, marks and general wear. Please see pictures. Please note that only the tipstaff is included and any other items in the pictures are for scale only.
