Description

A beautiful set of six vintage mahogany dining chairs, crafted from solid mahogany and finished in a rich warm tone. The set includes four dining chairs and two matching carver armchairs, making it ideal for a traditional dining room setting. The chairs feature elegant carved splat backs with decorative openwork, a classic design inspired by Chippendale style furniture. The graceful cabriole legs ending in carved claw and-ball feet add a refined traditional character. The seats are upholstered in a light patterned fabric, which contrasts nicely with the warm mahogany frame. The chairs are very heavy and solidly constructed, demonstrating quality craftsmanship. This is a timeless and elegant dining set that would suit both period interiors and classic contemporary homes. Seat height: 48 cm. The chairs are in very good vintage condition, with only light age related wear consistent with normal use. Frames are solid and stable, and the upholstery remains clean and presentable.
