Description

For your consideration is this truly fabulous & genuinely rare example Art Deco English display cabinet. We haven't had this design in quite a number of years so it is quite a rare find. A full circular cabinet sits on a half circular plinth. The circles are further echoed in the leaded glass to the doors. The doors come with their original key and open with ease. We've had the lock oiled & serviced. The interior backing is a pure white in colour which contrasts perfectly with the darker wood exterior. There are three internal glass shelves, offering plenty of space to showcase your collections. The whole cabinet has been restored professionally by our team, so comes to you in showroom condition.
