Description

A vintage hand-knotted rug featuring a bold central medallion surrounded by finely drawn floral and vine motifs. The palette is rich and traditional, with deep reds, indigo blues, and ivory accents creating a beautifully balanced composition. Multiple decorative borders frame the field, each filled with repeating floral elements that showcase the weaver's skill. The wool pile has softened attractively with age, and the colours retain excellent depth. A decorative and authentic example of traditional rug weaving, ideal for adding warmth and character to both classic and contemporary interiors.
