Description

A very substantial Indian dowry chest in teak and rosewood, very decorative metal repoussé work featuring peacocks, extremely rare to find the original lock still attached, large carry side handles, bottom internal drawer, huge storage space. Teak and rosewood frame. The tops of these chests are usually damaged through stacking. Perfect iron strap work. An exceptional example. Approximately 57 inches 145 cm long, 36 inches 92 cm deep, 38 inches 97 cm tall.
