Description

A Nice Vintage Pair of Silver Plated Two-Branch Table Candelabra made by the renowned maker Mappin and Webb. Each candelabrum has a central baluster stem rising from a stepped, circular base. The arms are shaped in a restrained scroll form, giving a traditional Georgian revival silhouette. These convertible candelabrum can also be used as a pair of candlesticks – circa 1930. * Use them together for symmetry, or split them to frame a sideboard or mantel. Measurements: Height: 8" (approx. 20cm) Width: 9 1/2" (approx. 24cm) Diameter of base: 4" (approx. 10cm) Total weight: 2160g In good condition – The silver plated surfaces show light surface wear and fine marks consistent with age and normal handling. The detachable elements fit correctly, and the pieces are structurally sound.
