Description

This compact figure depicts an eagle with wings partially raised, cast in a warm brass. The modelling is detailed, with individually picked feather texture across the wings and breast. It is mounted on a stepped, turned wooden base with a rich brown finish. The underside is finished with green felt – circa 1900. * It is the sort of small object that makes a workspace feel considered and personal. Measurements: Height: 4" (approx. 10cm) Diameter of base: 3 1/4" (approx. 8cm) Total weight: 224g In good condition – The brass figure shows general surface wear and light rubbing consistent with age and handling. The wooden base presents well, with minor marks and wear commensurate with use.
